

Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong – Terms and Conditions

Liability

Any players that take part in any session at the Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong Centre acknowledge that due to the nature of sports, injuries can occur. They are aware and fully accept sole and unconditional responsibility for the health and safety for themselves (in case of players under the age of 18 years, their parent or guardian) in the football environment, including risk of personal injury, property damage and other losses/damage that may incur while attending, exercising or participating in trainings. Whilst attending any training at the Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong Centre, Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong and Elite Skills Arena East Asia Limited are absolved to the maximum extent permitted by law, shall be held harmless and fully indemnify them from all liability that may arise.

Elite Skills Arena East Asia Limited, its coaches, representatives, employees, partners of individuals or otherwise will be discharged from any or all claims, cause of actions, known or unknown, suits, actions, demands or right to compensation for damages that may occur in connection with participating at the Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong Centre. Elite Skills Arena East Asia Limited, its coaches, representatives and employees are authorised to arrange medical or hospital treatment for the player if the individual or parent/guardian is unable to do so.

It is the full responsibility of the participant to be in good physical condition and able to participate in training. By being enrolled in the training programme, the individual is assuming at their own risk of any resulting injury.

Enrollment & Cancellations

All participants are required to pre-pay for any sessions they are to attend, with the exception of any trial session. The sessions that are purchased are valid for one year from date of purchase and can be used for any session that they may look to redeem for.

Bookings must be made prior to attending any session. Bookings can still be made less than 24 hours before a session, but please ensure that a confirmation is given either by the Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong admin or by the coach in charge of the session prior to attending.

Cancellations will normally not be entertained if the individual fails to notify Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong less than 24 hours before the session. The session will be credited back to the individual however if:

- The individual is to cancel at least 24 hours prior to the booked session
- Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong is required to cancel any session due to any circumstance (e.g. problems with venue, poor weather, COVID outbreak)
- The individual cancels due to certain unforeseeable circumstances (e.g. death in family, sudden health issues and other uncontrollable situations)

Regarding cancellations due to weather, the centre will look to stay open under all circumstances. The only exceptions would be considered if the HK Observatory are to issue:

- Black Storm Warning
- Typhoon No.8 Signal

Under these circumstances both the individual and the coaches travelling to the centre can look to cancel if they feel that there is any danger to themselves whilst getting there. The decision to cancel for any circumstance due to weather will be given at least 2 hours prior to the session from Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong and ask that the individual look to try to do the same. In any circumstances of dispute or uncertainty, common sense shall prevail.

Conduct

Any participants at the centre are required to wear appropriate footwear (non-studded boots or trainers) and athletic wear. Sessions will start and finish on time, so individuals are requested to arrive promptly otherwise their session might be cut short. Once the session is finalized, Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong cannot be responsible for minding any players, and that is it the responsibility of the parents/guardians to arrange their transport home. If there are any issues regarding pick-up (if applicable) please let the coach at Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong know immediately. Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong reserves the right to expel any individual from a session, either temporarily or permanently, for behavior considered unacceptable to the coaches and/or fellow players. In any circumstances of dispute or uncertainty, common sense shall prevail.

Photography/Videography Policy

Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong may take photos or videos for promotional purposes. Please note that Elite Skills Arena Hong Kong will not formally use any image or video without prior consent of the player or their parent/guardian prior to publication. If there are any concerns about the photography/videography policy should be referred to our administration via email.
